

Responding to the needs of older people resident in Care Homes

A conference convened jointly by CCC and the Clinical Effectiveness & Evaluation Unit of the Royal College of Physicians

Seligman Lecture Theatre, Royal College of Physicians of London

Friday, 30 June 2006

10.00	Chairman's introduction Martin Green (Chief Executive, English Community Care Association)
10.10	CCC's 2006 Census of 32,000 care home residents Dr Clive Bowman (Chairman, CCC)
10.30	Reflections on the census findings: Part One (10 minutes each)
	A policy perspective: Julien Forder (King's Fund Wanless Team)
	A provider's perspective: Des Kelly (Executive Director, National Care Forum)
	A nursing perspective: Sylvia Denton CBE (President, Royal College of Nursing)
	The self funder's dilemma: Sandy Johnstone (CCC)
11.10	Discussion
11.30	Tea & coffee break
12.00	Reflections on the census findings: Part Two (10 minutes each)
	A perspective from primary care: Dr Steve Iliffe (Royal Free & University College London)
	A consultant physician's perspective: Dr Finbarr Martin (St Thomas' Hospital)
	Regulation & Quality: David Walden (Commission for Social Care Inspection)
	Quality of Clinical Care: Dr Jonathan Potter (CEEU, Royal College of Physicians)
12.40	Discussion
13.00	Close